A Note From Pastor Andrew

If you were here this past Sunday then you know Jack Eggleston gave a great sermon about how no matter what obstacles may be standing against you, God will provide. In his sermon he talked about the youth gathering and how there was a breakdown in communication and organization, beyond anyone's control, when it came to lunches, tools, bussing, etc...for over 35000 Lutheran volunteers. Yet, in the midst of all of it, just when things looked bleak, God provided. Tools showed up, food was found and donated, how can we forget the look on Jack's face when he said, "out of the blue 50 pizzas arrived." In short, people stepped up, and what could have been a disaster turned into a day one can only chalk up to the Holy Spirit at work. The Holy Spirit touching and working through so many to see the success God already knew was there.

This got me to thinking though, when has God provided for you when all hope seemed lost? Where do you see God at work in your life? With whom do you share this wonderful experience? Do you see God at work at CTK? Why or why not? I look forward to your comments.

God will provide, but will you let Him?

In Christ,

Pastor Andrew
